ART AND BEAUTY:

Art comes from the heart of man and is rightly categorized as one of the humanities . But even art and beauty have an intertwined relationship, beauty is of divine origin, flowing from the very character of the divine being.

While art is man's response to embrace beauty.

Art without beauty ceases to exist . Art is a message conveyed through media . Since art is about beauty and beauty is of divine origin.

BEAUTY

- Art could be made about ugliness – but the definition of ugliness is a lack of beauty so art finds its birth and existence in beauty.

Beauty is from the divine .
Art is man's yearning to apprehend it.

HOW DO THEY CONNECT.

- Beauty is so much larger than we are and when connected to art we throw ourselves into it. We seek it because it is too vast to grasp fully, which makes it all the more attractive, for a cause greater than ourselves.
- Art could be all about ugliness but, the definition of ugliness is a lack of beauty, so art finds its birth and existence in beauty.
- The idea of ugliness does not exist without beauty, as it is only absence.
- When there is no beauty in art, there would have to be no art, which would mean no design, no order in our world. The lack of law would make technology impossible.
