

WE ARE LOOKING FOR

VOLUNTEERS/INTERNS

We are looking for committed interns/volunteers to join our growing team and support crucial outreach and community engagement efforts in Delhi.

Who Can Apply:

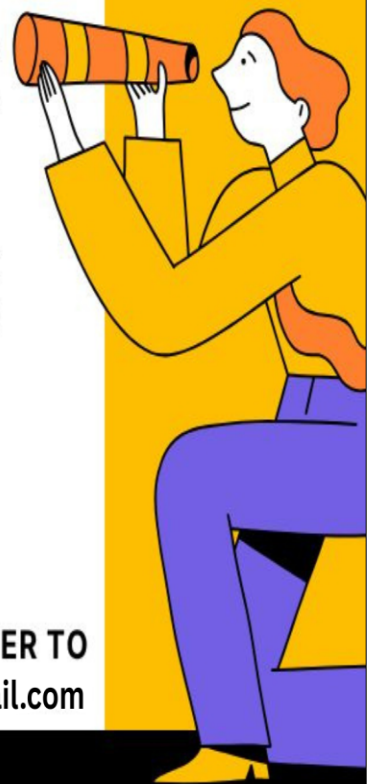

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Comfortable with fieldwork (minimum 3-4 hours daily)
- Familiar with tools like Google Docs, Excel, and Canva
- Law/social work students or individuals passionate about justice and reform

What We Offer

- Direct exposure to working at the intersection of prisons, justice, and reform.
- Hands-on engagement with real-time casework, family interactions, and legal documentation.
- Mentorship from a team with over 10 years of experience in criminal justice and grassroots reform.
- A Certificate of Completion, stipend and, where applicable, a Letter of Recommendation based on performance and involvement.
- A chance to be part of a pioneering movement that centres people with lived experience of incarceration in reimagining justice.

SEND YOUR CV AND COVER LETTER TO
jevish.tycia@gmail.com